

1. Ann Arbor Meals on Wheels
Six days a week, volunteers deliver 200+ meals within the Ann Arbor area. Each volunteer delivers to 10-13 clients, taking 1-2 hours to complete a route. In addition to delivering meals, volunteers provide a daily well/safety-check and briefly socialize with clients. For many of our clients, a volunteer is the only person they see all day. Volunteers must be 18 years of age, have a vehicle to drive, a valid driver's license, and auto insurance. Contact: Rhonda Rogowski, 998-6686 or aamotormeals@umich.edu
2. Community Action Network:
Throughout the school year, CAN offers after school programs for primary, middle and high school students from the neighborhood, which include both homework assistance as well as a nutritious evening meal. Volunteers are needed to help with meal preparation and serving as tutors to assist with homework. Volunteers with specific skills and interests are also welcome. (ie...piano teacher, gardeners.) Contact: Joan Doughty, Executive Director: 734-347-9061, canexecdirector@gmail.com
3. Dawn Farm:
We have many areas where volunteers can help. We utilize community mentors with clients at our Chapin Street Project, Spera Recovery Center and at both of our residential sites. In addition, our Jamboree is run by more than 200 diverse community volunteers. We welcome inquiries from individuals wishing to volunteer. Contact: Anna Byberg/Project Manager. 734-485-8725 or email: abyberg@dawnfarm.org
4. The Ecumenical Center and International Residence:
Volunteers are needed in a variety of ways: hospitality, drivers, office work, property maintenance, programs and committees. Contact ECIR at 734-662-5529 or email: info@eci.org website: www.ecir.org
5. Ele's Place:
At Ele's Place, to maintain the confidentiality of our families, we only utilize volunteers who have completed Ele's Place training. Interested volunteers contact: Ann Arciero at 734-929-6640.
6. Family Book Club:
We use volunteers for clerical support. We are often in need of technical support in sustaining our educational and marketing activities through our web site. We use volunteers as readers and reading mentors. Contact: Diane Saulter, 734-645-1320 or email: dsaulter@familybookclub.org
7. First Congregational Church Shelter Program:
Contact our Church for dates and volunteer needs: Betsy Hill, 734-662-1679 or Email: office@fccannarbor.org
8. Food Gatherers
Volunteer opportunities include riding along in one of our delivery trucks and assisting in food runs, working on-site at Food Gatherers warehouse, preparing and serving meals at the Food Gatherers Community Kitchen, located in the Robert J. Delonis Center in downtown Ann Arbor. Contact: Eric Marria, 734-761-2796, eric@foodgatherers.org
9. Friends in Deed
Telephone intake volunteers are needed to respond to requests for help. Training will be provided. Volunteers knowledgeable in repairing appliances. This service offered to some low-income households. Furniture delivery volunteers needed, too. We would like a volunteer to represent your congregation on the FID Board. Contact: Stormy Lloyd, Program Manager, 734-485-7658, office@friendsindeed.info

10. Habitat For Humanity:
Contact our church: Betsy Hill at 734-662-1679 or email: office@fccannarbor.org
11. HIV/AIDS Resource Center:
Volunteers play many roles and help with a variety of tasks. These include stocking the food pantry, helping to prepare pantry bags on days when the food pantry is open, helping organize food donation drives for the food pantry, assisting with community outreach and education, helping with office work and helping with special events. Contact: Calvin Dishmon, 734-572-9355 or email: cdishmon@hivaidsresource.org
12. Hope Medical Clinic Inc.
More than 250 people volunteer at Hope each month in a wide variety of capacities. The Ypsilanti Medical Clinic utilizes more volunteers than any program in the area, including medical doctors, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, pharmacists, receptionists, and office/administrative workers. All volunteers must have a passion for serving the poor in a Christian setting. Contact: Connie Hallom/Volunteer Services Coordinator at 734-484-2989 ext. 302 or email: challom@thehopeclinic.org
13. House By The Side Of The Road
Volunteers unpack, sort and hang clothing so a small amount of physical ability is needed. Contact: Frances Arnett at 734-971-2550.
14. The Interfaith Round Table of Washtenaw County:
People with a personal interest in interfaith and inter-religious work, please contact: George Lambrides at 734-424-1535 or email: gbrides@umich.edu
15. United Way Washtenaw Success by 6 "Karla Fund"
Deliver materials to be packaged to Laurie Terrace where residents assemble them. Deliver assembled packets to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Mother/Baby unit on the second Thursday of each month. This takes 3 to 4 hours. Also, volunteers needed to do data entry and to assemble Parent Network development packets that are mailed to parents monthly. Heavy lifting required for Karla Fund work and use of a vehicle.
Contact: Jennifer Morse at 734-994-8100. Email: jmorse@washtenawsuccessby6.org
16. Our Own Thing:
Volunteers needed to serve on our board.
Contact: Janet V. Johnson-Haynes at 734-769-4437. Email: DeltaJanet@aol.com
17. RAAH: Religious Action For Affordable Housing
The communication committee would welcome people with good technological, social networking, and writing skills for further developing our web presence. The Fundraising committee can use people who enjoy planning fundraising activities and those who enjoy working with numbers and the use of an Excel program. Contact: Mary Browning at 734-665-8167
Email: mcbrowng@umich.edu

18. Peace Neighborhood Center:
We currently have opportunities for after-school tutoring, program assistants, and grounds maintenance. Program assistant requires a once-a-week commitment on Tuesdays or Thursdays between 3:30 and 6 p.m. Greeting children, supervising meals and free play time, reading with children, and assisting staff are the main responsibilities. Contact: Terrie Strom at 734-662-3564. Email: tstrom@peaceneighborhoodcenter.org
19. Religious Action for Affordable Housing (RAAH)
We would like to have a member of First Congregational Church on our Board. Also, we have three committees for volunteers to work on: Communications/Publicity, Website/Newsletter, education/Advocacy. Contact: Mary Browning at 734-665-8167 or email: mcbrowng@umich.edu
20. Safehouse Center:
We have three primary categories of volunteers: office/clerical, direct service and project based. Our office/clerical volunteers assist with administrative tasks during regular business hours. Our direct service volunteers work in one of the following programs: shelter, HelpLine, domestic violence response team or sexual assault response team. Project-based volunteers design and complete projects around SafeHouse Center as needed. Contact: Kathy Winterhalter/Volunteer and Intern Services Coordinator at 734-973-0242 ext. 252. Email: kathyw@safehousecenter.org
21. Samaritan Counseling Services:
Volunteer opportunities include: Board of Directors member, committee member or task force member, special events coordinator, office receptionist/assistant, bulk-mail coordinator, financial assistant, newsletter editor/assistant, Webmaster. Contact: Jocelyn Pyett/Executive Director at 734-677-0690. Email: jhpyett@sbcglobal.net
22. Shelter Association of Washtenaw County:
There are many volunteer opportunities available to include: serving breakfast, helping clients with laundry, providing information to clients, managing clinic flow, mail sorting and interaction with clients.
Contact: Deena McIntosh at 734-662-2829 ext. 226. Email: volunteers@ewashtenaw.org
23. SOS Community Services:
The SOS food program has various roles for volunteers, each requiring different levels of time, training, and commitment. Contact Volunteer Recruitment Specialist at 734-961-1210.
Email: volunteer@soscs.org
24. VFW Graf-O'Hara Post 423
Volunteers are needed to help pack boxes to be sent to troops.
Contact: Marvin Konkle at 734-971-3361
25. Washtenaw Literacy:
We need volunteers for: mailings, tutoring, community outreach events and more!
Contact: Kelly Boelter at 734-879-1320 or email: boelter@washtenawliteracy.org
26. Ypsilanti Meals on Wheels:
A volunteer could join one of four teams of three people who utilize our vans and drivers to deliver meals to our homebound recipients. A volunteer team could use their own car to deliver to specific locations. Volunteers are needed to assist in the office with special projects and fundraising events.
Contact: Ann Harris at 734-487-9669 Email: ymow@tds.net